Tournament Rules

This tournament is governed by DNR rules.

The fishing times are from 6:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. Eastern Time.

Fish hooked after 1:00 P.M. CANNOT be entered in the tournament. Fish hooked prior to 1:00 P.M., but landed after 1:00 P.M. may be entered. No Lines in the water before 6:00 A.M.

Weigh-In will be held at Central Park in Mishawaka, Indiana. Roll call will be at 2:00 P.M.

Anyone not present with their fish will be disqualified, with one exception: If your boat breaks down you must inform another registered entrant who must then inform the tournament committee before roll call. You or one of your crew must arrive before the weigh-in is complete.

When weighing in your largest fish, it is your responsibility to choose the one fish to be weighted in. You cannot weigh several fish to determine the largest fish.

You may fish the St. Joseph River only, from the Twin Branch Dam to the railroad bridge in St. Joseph, Michigan.

Entries are accepted on the honor system.

You may not fish any tributary of the St. Joseph River, for example, employees or members of the Isaac Walton League may not fish Juday Creek.

When fishing from a boat, all people in the boat must be entered in the tournament.

The tournament committee will settle all disputes.
